Medieval Astrology Profile for Alan Greenspan

File History: Original version 7-Sep-2015; Table Update 31-May-2016

Introduction to delineation of appearance and character in natal astrology. The following document is a hand-written analysis of Alan Greenspan, using the principles of medieval predictive astrology. The discipline of natal astrology focuses on the fate of an individual based on a horoscope cast for the moment of birth. Within natal astrology, the 1st house occupying the eastern horizon at birth describes the native: physical vitality, appearance, and character. Between the Hellenistic and Medieval eras several specialized models were developed to assess these characteristics. They include longevity (vitality and length of life), physiognomy (form and shape of the face and body), victor of the chart (overall life purpose), manners (social conduct including ethical behavior), and temperament (elemental mix of fire, earth, air, and water with applications in medical astrology). Prior research has presented models and results for longevity (A Rectification Manual: The American Presidency, Chapter 4) and physiognomy (Astrological Physiognomy: History and Sources & Astrological Physiognomy: Empirical Tests of the Leo Rising Decan).

Victor of the Chart. Included are two competing models for computing the victor of the chart said to be the single most powerful planet in the horoscope. According to Plato's follower Porphyry, by configuration in the natal horoscope the planet signifying the victor of the chart shows the life choice made by the soul prior to incarnation. Plato explains the details of his soul model in The Myth of Er found in the closing pages of his work The Republic. Porphyry and his peer Antiochus offer specific rules for determining the victor of the chart. The method of Antiochus/Porphyry is compared to a later method for determining the victor suggested by the Jewish Rabbi Abraham ben Meir ibn Ezra, a philosopher and astrologer active in the 12th century. For a discussion of these two models, see the companion paper Victor of the Chart: Testing Methods of Antiochus/Porphyry and Ibn Ezra, which serves as a key to what is presented here.

Manners. Plato was not alone among Greek philosophers in conceiving models for the soul. Aristotle's model of vegetative, sensitive, and intellective soul levels (assigned respectively to the plant, animal, and human kingdoms) was taken up by Ptolemy, who found a correspondence between the sensitive and intellective soul and Moon and Mercury in the natal horoscope. Configuration of the Moon and Mercury, with special emphasis given to their rulers, is a second method for analyzing the soul. Ptolemy introduces this model in Tetrabiblos III.13 "Of the Quality of the Soul." Subsequent authors refer to this model as "Significators of the Soul" or "Manners." A summary template for the Moon and Mercury is presented in the paper and will be further developed in future versions.

Alan Greenspan (March 6, 1926 - living)

Successor to Paul Volcker as Federal Reserve Chairman from 1987 to 2006, Alan Greenspan presided over a strong period of increased labor productivity following introduction of the personal computer in 1981. As Fed Chairman, his review of labor productivity statistics in the mid-1990s demonstrated that government statistics did not capture the full benefit of technological innovations to the modern economy. On at least one occasion, he argued that labor market improvement would not trigger inflation because of increased productivity. As a result, interest rates were kept lower for a longer period of time. The dot-com crash of 2000 as well as the subsequent housing boom and bust have marred Greenspan's legacy with critics accusing Greenspan of favoring accommodative monetary policy which led to the unnecessary creation of asset bubbles. This recent criticism is made with 20-20 hindsight and may not prove long-lasting. Whatever the critics have stated, there is no question that Greenspan successfully helped engineer real economy and financial market gains following many serious dislocations: Crash of 1987, Asian Crisis of 1997, Russian Devaluation and Long Term Capital Management bankruptcy 1998, Dot-com bust of 2000, WTC Terror attacks of 2001 and recession of 2001-2002. He remains an icon of the 1980-2000 era when gains made by liberal democracies demonstrated the failure of central planned economies under Communism.

Stage I. Determine the Ascendant sign

Firdaria

The following events suggest the Diurnal Firdaria series as a match to life affairs:

Mercury-Mercury (6-Mar-1944 to 12-Jan-1946). Quit job with Henry Jerome band and enrolled in NYU School of Commerce, Accounts, and Finance, Fall 1945.

Mercury-Sun (19-Jun-1953 to 26-Apr-1955). Formed partnership with William Townsend; “Townsend & Greenspan and Company,” September 1953. Incorporated 1954.

Moon-Moon (6-Mar-1957 – 18-Jun-1958). Made first macroeconomic forecast in late 1957 that an economy-wide recession would occur in early 1958. Correct prediction. (Moon signifies prophecy).

Saturn-Mercury. (14-Jan-1974 – 9-Aug-1975). Appointed to and confirmed as Chair of Council of Economic Advisers to Ford White House, 20-Aug-1975.

Mars-Mars. (5-Mar-1989 to 4-Mar-1990). Fall of Berlin Wall. (see also solar arc directions).

North Node. (6-Mar-1996 to 5-Mar-1999). “Irrational Exuberance” speech made 5-Dec-1996. Moon/Sagittarius (optimism/inflation/asset bubble) is ruler of the North Node/Cancer.

South Node. (6-Mar-1999 to 5-Mar-2001). Peak of Dot-com bubble in early 2000 and crash. South Node ruled by Saturn/Scorpio-rx which is a deflationary signature.

Sun-Venus. (10-Aug-2002 to 13-Jan-2004). Awarded Knight of British Empire from Queen Elizabeth II. Sun is placed in 11th house of honors which Venus rules by exaltation.

Moon's Configuration

For all daylight hours, the Moon will separate from Mercury and apply to Venus. This rectification technique will not help narrow the Ascendant choice for Greenspan's nativity.

Moon's Degree

For Greenspan's second marriage to Andrea Mitchell on 6-Apr-1997, dsa Moon conj Jupiter yields an Ascendant of 18TA43. Let's consider the potential of a Taurus rising horoscope next.

Configuration of the Chart

The following configurations are a match to life affairs.

- Mars/Capricorn/9th is a common signature for overseas military service. In this horoscope Mars is conjunct the South Node which negates Mars' influence. This is consistent with Greenspan's ability to avoid the WWII draft.

- Lot of Fortune/Venus/Jupiter in the 10th signifies initial interest in music as a career (Venus), and eventual 'Maestro' (Jupiter) of the information age (Aquarius is a fixed air sign likes to hoard information) with the Lot of Fortune giving Greenspan luck in finding jobs and help with reputation.

- Saturn/Scorpio-rx/7th is a negative placement for Greenspan. Saturn/Scorpio itself is a double negative, or 'bears are corralled' which typically helps stock prices rise in value. However the retrograde negates that promise and placement of this malefic in the 7th house makes describes Greenspan' open enemies in the world of finance. A study of Saturn directions will reveal many episodes of financial market disruption when Saturn is directed to the ASC, MC, or LOF.

Physiognomy

In addition to the configuration of the chart, Greenspan's facial features are also consistent with a Taurus Ascendant. Both his nose and lips are outsized relative to the scale of his face. This is a classic Taurus signature. Ascendant lord Venus is placed in Aquarius which does give Greenspan wrinkles on his forehead the wavy shape of the Aquarius glyph.

Conclusion: Ascendant is Taurus.

Stage II. Determine the Ascendant's range within 1-4 degrees

Lot of Fortune Bound Placement

While not an official rectification step outlined in A Rectification Manual, for Greenspan's nativity, compared to the initial Ascendant of 18TA43 computed in Stage I which places the Lot in the bound of Venus/Aquarius, I immediately was drawn to the higher probability that the LOF would be placed in the bound of Mercury/Aquarius (from 0AQ00 to 6AQ59) given Greenspan's professional significator as an economist (Mercury) had much more to do with luck in finding jobs (LOF/10th) than his musical talents (Venus). Measurements for sensitive degrees (next) confirmed this observation.

Stage III. Determine the exact Degree and Minute of the Ascendant

Solar Arc Directions

I chose to lock down the rectification with these two measurements:

14-Aug-1974. csa Sun conj MC.
Senate confirmed Greenspan as Chair of Council of Economic Advisers, 20-Aug-74. This is a bit off but this move was in the works in early August; it was delayed because of Nixon's resignation on 8-Aug-1974.

2-Jun-1987. dsa Sun conj ASC.
Appointed as successor to Paul Volcker to Federal Reserve Chairman by President Reagan, exact.

18-Oct-1989. dsa ASC opposed Mars.
Resignation of East German leader Erich Honecker, 18-Oct-1989. Led to fall of Berlin Wall.

In addition I investigated but did not have time to compile were multiple directions of Saturn to the angles which timed incidents of financial stress. These include a Saturn-Lot of Fortune direction for the LTCM crisis and bailout of 8-Oct-1998 as well as Saturn-MC directions during the Financial Crisis of 2007-2008.

Victor of the Chart: Jupiter/Aquarius

Ibn Ezra's method favors Jupiter with Venus not far behind; Porphyry's Stage I criteria favors Mercury Mars, and Jupiter. Based on Firdaria analysis, there is little question that Mercury is Greenspan's significator as business analyst and consultant. This in fact was his early life calling. But Jupiter, oriental in its strongest possible solar phase placed in the 10th sign conjunct the Lot of Fortune, promised a much larger profession within society as a whole. I have noted in horoscopes of musicians with Venus-Jupiter conjunctions the tendency of these individuals (Stowkowski, Casals) to begin as musicians but gravitate to festival organization or the conducting role. With Aquarius the fixed air sign assigned to technology, it is no accident that he oversaw the greatest productivity boom in US history boom during the late 1990s. Venus/Aquarius ruling the 6th of labor indicates an interest in labor productivity through technology. Application of Venus to Jupiter makes Greenspan the 'Maestro' of this meme.
