Medieval Astrology Profile for Josef Mengele

File History: Initial 31-Oct-2014; Tables Revised 16-Jun-2016

Introduction to delineation of appearance and character in natal astrology. The following document is a hand-written analysis of Josef Mengele, using the principles of medieval predictive astrology. The discipline of natal astrology focuses on the fate of an individual based on a horoscope cast for the moment of birth. Within natal astrology, the 1st house occupying the eastern horizon at birth describes the native: physical vitality, appearance, and character. Between the Hellenistic and Medieval eras several specialized models were developed to assess these characteristics. They include longevity (vitality and length of life), physiognomy (form and shape of the face and body), victor of the chart (overall life purpose), manners (social conduct including ethical behavior), and temperament (elemental mix of fire, earth, air, and water with applications in medical astrology). Prior research has presented models and results for longevity (A Rectification Manual: The American Presidency, Chapter 4) and physiognomy (Astrological Physiognomy: History and Sources & Astrological Physiognomy: Empirical Tests of the Leo Rising Decan).

Victor of the Chart. Included are two competing models for computing the victor of the chart said to be the single most powerful planet in the horoscope. According to Plato's follower Porphyry, the planet signifying the victor of the chart by configuration in the natal horoscope shows the life choice made by the soul prior to incarnation. Plato explains the details of his soul model in The Myth of Er found in the closing pages of The Republic. Porphyry and his peer Antiochus offer specific rules for determining the victor of the chart. The method of Antiochus/Porphyry is compared to a later method for determining the victor suggested by the Jewish Rabbi Abraham ben Meir ibn Ezra, a philosopher and astrologer active in the 12th century. For a discussion of these two models, see the companion paper Victor of the Chart: Testing Methods of Antiochus/Porphyry and Ibn Ezra, which serves as a key to what is presented here.

Manners. Plato was not alone among Greek philosophers in conceiving models for the soul. Aristotle's model of vegetative, sensitive, and intellective soul levels (assigned respectively to the plant, animal, and human kingdoms) was taken up by Ptolemy, who found a correspondence between the sensitive and intellective soul and Moon and Mercury in the natal horoscope. The configuration of the Moon and Mercury, with special emphasis given to their rulers, is a second method for analyzing the soul. Ptolemy introduces this model in Tetrabiblos III.13 "Of the Quality of the Soul." Subsequent authors refer to this model as the "Significators of the Soul" or "Manners." A summary template for the Moon and Mercury is presented in the paper and will be developed further in future versions.

Josef Mengele (March 16, 1911 to February 7, 1979)

One of the most notorious Nazis, Josef Mengele's interest in anthropology, genetics, and racial purity were given full reign at Auschwitz. Mengele selected who would live and who would die with a quick motion of his hands after Jews arrived by cattle car and walked to the top of the entrance ramp. Those who would live included twin children selected for genetics experiments for whom Mengele reserved some of the most notorious examples of documented human torture in the 20th century. After Auschwitz, Mengele fled to South America where he lived the balance of his life undetected by authorities.

Armchair psychologists read much into Mengele's early home life with a relatively passive father and angry abusive mother for which the pattern of cruel punishments for minor infractions appears to have embedded itself into Mengele's brain patterns from an early age. Nevertheless, Mengele did not truly come into his own until he left home and began to study anthropology at Munich University in October 1930 which was coincidentally the seat of Hitler's power base. Mengele shared Hitler's obsession with racial purity which influenced his graduate research in human deformity. His thesis "Racial Morphological Research on the Lower Jaw Section of Four Racial Groups" identified factors resulting in a cleft lip and palate or cleft chin. Initially he worked in Leipzig at the university medical clinic but was quickly chosen by the Nazi Party for a research position at the Third Reich Institute for Hereditary, Biology, and Racial Purity in 1937. After a short stint at the Institute, Mengele saw active military service (1940-1942) and was decorated for many feats of heroism including pulling two German soldiers from a burning tank for which he was awarded the Iron Cross First Class in January 1942. Injuries prevented further wartime service and by May 1943 he was sent to Auschwitz.

Josef Mengele spent twenty months at Auschwitz where his activities in genetics research, funded by a grant awarded by the German Research Council in August 1943, would define the rest of his life. In what amounted to a sadistic Frankenstein type of laboratory setting, Mengele conducted his own 'genetic' experiments on human subjects – including twin children – with no regard for the scientific method nor the humanity of his patients. Arguably Mengele was at heart a serial killer and sadistic torturer who used genetics as a cover for inflicting pain and death on his victims. 'Experiments' included injecting infected blood of one twin into another in order to observe the relative speed of illness, live amputation of limbs without anesthesia, and attempting to change eye color by injecting chemicals into eyes of living subjects. In addition to medical experiments, Mengele was one of the 'selectors' who decided upon arrival which Jews and other Nazi victims would go immediately to the gas chambers vs who would be allowed to live temporarily as slave laborers or medical subjects.

Mengele fled Auschwitz on 17-Jan-1945 and lived undercover for several years in Germany until he was smuggled out of the country using an underground network operated by former SS officers. For the next 33 years, he evaded arrest by both Germans and the Israeli Mossad by moving to Paraguay and Brazil. He died in the ocean by the coastal resort Bertioga after having a stroke while swimming.

Mengele's South American life affairs were finally brought into public view after a tip led to a German raid on the home of Hans Sedlmeier who was Mengele's European contact. A coded address book, letters, and a death notice all led to the location of Mengele's remains which were recovered on 6-June-1985.

Rectification

Available Birth Data

Astrodatabank reports an AA-rated birth time of 11:45 AM. The proposed rectification maintains the Cancer Ascendant, but moves the time earlier by approximately 30 minutes.

Proposed Rectification

This is a preliminary rectification based on limited data. Nonetheless the work here suggests an accuracy for the Ascendant of +/- 1 degree.

Stage I. Determine the Ascendant sign

Configuration of the Chart

With an AA-rated birth time, the objective of Stage I is to confirm the Ascendant sign.

Mengele's interests in genetics and racial purity are consistent with two defining features of the Cancer rising horoscope. First is Cancer itself whose color is white. Second is Gemini, significator of genetics, as the sign of the 12th house whose significations include evil spirit and research. (For examples of the connection between genetics and Gemini, see Mars/Gemini as victor for maize geneticist Barbara McClintock; North Node/Gemini in the horoscope of genetic researcher James Watson, and Sun/Mercury Gemini in the horoscope of co-DNA discoverer Francis Crick).

Stage II. Determine the Ascendant's range within 1-4 degrees

Physiognomy

The AA-rated birth time of 11:45 AM places the 12th degree of Cancer on the Ascendant. This corresponds to the 2nd decan of Cancer which is Scorpio. Lord Mars/Aquarius suggests a square facial shape usually with the profile of the forehead outlining a rectangle. This is not evident in Mengele's photos. In addition, placement of Jupiter/Scorpio-rx and the South Node/Scorpio in the sign of the rising decan complicates physiognomy rules with the potential of nullifying Scorpio's effect on physiognomy because of the South Node. If so, then the opposite sign of Taurus amplified by the North Node conjunct Saturn should define Mengele's physiognomy. There is little evidence of the soft rectangular look of Willner's facial model for Taurus nor does Mengele have the plodding/thuggish look of Saturn/Taurus.

The shape of Mengele's face is the compressed ovate which conforms to Willner's facial model for Libra. This suggests the first decan of Cancer rises where the Moon /Libra contributes Libra's effect on physiognomy as both sign and decan ruler.

Sensitive Degrees

The following measurements suggests the 6th degree of Cancer rises:

17-Jan-1945. Fled Auschwitz. trSaturn 5CA46'18"
7-Feb-1979. Death. c. tr. South Node 5CA45'30"
31-May-1985. Police raid uncovers location of body. c.s.a. Mercury 5CP45'24"

Stage III. Determine the exact Degree and Minute of the Ascendant

Solar Arc Directions

The proposed preliminary rectification is anchored on the 31-May-1985 solar arc direction (above) which timed a very public raid of Hans Sedlmeier's home who was the Mengele's contact person in Europe. The raid uncovered evidence of Mengele's travels in South America and the location of his body. Combust Mercury in the 9th ruling the 12th directed to the 7th by solar arc can be interpreted as hidden (combust) secrets (ruling the 12th) regarding foreign travels (placement in 9th) are uncovered (nature of solar arc is a public event) through a police raid (7th house of legal disputes).

Primary Directions

For further research and a final rectification, consider these sets of directions:

Mars directed to the DSC in 1942-1943 while Mengele was a combat soldier and earned his two Iron Cross awards.

North Node directed to the ASC during 1959-1960 as a German arrest warrant (June 1959) and the Israeli Mossad's investigation (1960) forced Mengele to move to Paraguay then to Brazil.

Model Summary

(for model details see www.regulus-astrology.com/research.html)

Physiognomy

Ascendant sign: Cancer
Ascendant sign ruler: Moon/Libra
Ascendant decan: Cancer
Ascendant decan ruler: Moon/Libra
Planets/Nodes placed in the Ascendant sign or decan: none.

The Libra influence on Mengele's appearance yields a pleasant initial impression which disarmed his victims prior to their torture and murder. Facial shape conforms to the compressed ovate of Willner's sign-based physiognomy model.

Longevity: 67y 10m 24d

Releaser and kadukhudhāh. Figure is diurnal and Sun in the 9th/10th whole sign/quadrant houses qualifies. With lord Jupiter retrograde and conjunct, the search for the kadukhudhah turns to Venus which rules the Sun by exaltation and by diurnal triplicity and Mars which rules the Sun by nocturnal triplicity, bound, and decan. Venus is also the victor. Theory does not offer a clean choice. Both planets are in strong solar phases. Though in detriment, Venus is nonetheless the victor, the planet to which the Moon applies, and angular in the 10th by whole sign houses. Venus is also received by Mars. Empirically Venus appears the better choice with Venus granting 82 major years and Mars deducting 15 minor years (Mars receives Venus by sextile) for a net projection of 67yrs which is accurate. If Mars, then Mars grants 66 major years which also appears a match until we see that Saturn by square aspect should deduct 30 minor years by square aspect for a net of 36 minor years. Age 36 takes Mengele to 16-Mar-1947 fifteen months prior to his exile in South America. To accept Mars as kadukhudhah is to accept the thesis that Mengele's functional life ended in 1947.

Victor of the Chart: Venus/Aries

Ibn Ezra's method favors Venus followed by Mercury and Saturn; Porphyry's Stage I criteria adds Jupiter. Mercury combust ruling Gemini on the 12th cusp signifies Mengele's research interest in twins and genetics; Mercury combust signifies the death/burning of twins – these are his subjects not Mengele himself. Saturn/Taurus signifies deformed lower jaws (Taurus assigned to the lower jaw and neck) as the subject of Mengele's PhD dissertation. Saturn placed in a Venus-ruled sign also suggests shamelessness towards women. While Saturn signifies Mengele's research interests and his manner, I suggest these life affairs these are embellishments to Mengele's life calling, not the call itself. Mars/Aquarius signifies a disregard for scientific principles; true enough, but again I suggest an embellishment. We are left with Venus – as stated above – even though Venus is in detriment, she has the correct solar phase for an inferior planet, is angular in the 10th by whole signs and is the planet to which the Moon applies. Venus/Aries is consistent with sadism as the defining feature of Mengeles' life purpose.

Manners: Saturn-Mars or Saturn-Venus.
