

Medieval Astrology Profile for Sylvester Stallone

V.1. 7-Feb-2021. 7:22:38 PM, ASC 29SA08'49"

Introduction to delineation of appearance and character in natal astrology. The following document is a hand-written analysis of Sylvester Stallone, using the principles of medieval predictive astrology. The discipline of natal astrology focuses on the fate of an individual based on a horoscope cast for the moment of birth. Within natal astrology, the 1st house occupying the eastern horizon at birth describes the native: physical vitality, appearance, and character. Between the Hellenistic and Medieval eras several specialized models were developed to assess these characteristics. They include longevity (vitality and length of life), physiognomy (form and shape of the face and body), victor of the chart (overall life purpose), manners (social conduct including ethical behavior), and temperament (elemental mix of fire, earth, air, and water with applications in medical astrology). Prior research has presented models and results for longevity (A Rectification Manual: The American Presidency, Chapter 4) and physiognomy (Astrological Physiognomy: History and Sources & Astrological Physiognomy: Empirical Tests of the Leo Rising Decan).

Victor of the Chart. Included are two competing models for computing the victor of the chart said to be the single most powerful planet in the horoscope. According to Plato's follower Porphyry, by configuration in the natal horoscope the planet signifying the victor of the chart shows the life choice made by the soul prior to incarnation. Plato explains the details of his soul model in The Myth of Er found in the closing pages of his work The Republic. Porphyry and his peer Antiochus offer specific rules for determining the victor of the chart. The method of Antiochus/Porphyry is compared to a later method for determining the victor suggested by the Jewish Rabbi Abraham ben Meir ibn Ezra, a philosopher and astrologer active in the 12th century. For a discussion of these two models, see the companion paper Victor of the Chart: Testing Methods of Antiochus/Porphyry and Ibn Ezra, which serves as a key to what is presented here.

Manners. Plato was not alone among Greek philosophers in conceiving models for the soul. Aristotle's model of vegetative, sensitive, and intellective soul levels (assigned respectively to the plant, animal, and human kingdoms) was taken up by Ptolemy, who found a correspondence between the sensitive and intellective soul and Moon and Mercury in the natal horoscope. Configuration of the Moon and Mercury, with special emphasis given to their rulers, is a second method for analyzing the soul. Ptolemy introduces this model in Tetrabiblos III.13 "Of the Quality of the Soul." Subsequent authors refer to this model as "Significators of the Soul" or "Manners." A summary template for the Moon and Mercury is presented in the paper and will be further developed in future versions.

Sylvester Stallone

Sylvester Stallone (July 6, 1946 - living)

Sylvester Enzo Stallone; born Michael Sylvester Gardenzio Stallone, is an American actor, director, screenwriter, producer and artist. After his beginnings as a struggling actor for a number of years upon arriving to New York City in 1969 and later Hollywood in 1974, he won his first critical acclaim as an actor for his co-starring role as Stanley Rosiello in The Lords of Flatbush. Stallone mostly only found gradual work as an extra or side character in films with a sizeable budget until he achieved his greatest critical and commercial success as an actor, starting in 1976 with his self-created role as the boxer Rocky Balboa, in the first film of the successful Rocky series (1976–2018). In the films, Rocky is portrayed as an underdog boxer that fights numerous brutal opponents, and wins the world heavyweight championship twice. The last two entries in the series are Creed and Creed II, that serve as spin-off films focusing on Adonis "Donnie" Creed, the son of the ill-fated boxer Apollo Creed, to whom the long retired Rocky is a mentor. Reprising the role during the 2010s brought Stallone praise, and his first Golden Globe award for the first Creed, as well as a third Oscar nomination, having been first nominated for the same role 40 years prior. Stallone had similar box-office success portraying the PTSD-plagued soldier John Rambo in the five Rambo films (1982–2019), and as mercenary Barney Ross in the three The Expendables films (2010–2014).

He wrote or co-wrote most of the films in his three biggest franchises, and directed many of them. Stallone's film Rocky was inducted into the National Film Registry, and had its props placed in the Smithsonian Museum. His use of the front entrance to the Philadelphia Museum of Art in the Rocky series led the area to be nicknamed the Rocky Steps, and Philadelphia has a statue of his Rocky character placed permanently near the museum. It was announced on December 7, 2010 that he was voted into the International Boxing Hall of Fame in the non-participant category.

In 1977, Stallone was nominated for two Academy Awards for Rocky, for Best Original Screenplay and Best Actor. He became the third man in history to receive these two nominations for the same film, after Charlie Chaplin and Orson Welles.

Physiognomy

Ascendant sign: Sagittarius

Ascendant sign ruler: Jupiter/Libra

Ascendant decan: Leo

Ascendant decan ruler: Sun/Cancer

Planets/Nodes placed in the Ascendant sign or decan: South Node in Ascendant; Mercury and Venus in Leo, sign of rising decan.

Longevity: living

Releaser and kadukhudhāh. Not delineated for the living.

Victor of the Chart: Mars/Virgo

Porphry's Stage I criteria assigns 2 points for bound rulership to Venus, Mars, and Jupiter. Total scores are similar for each planet. Surprisingly, Mercury/Leo, the signifier of Stallone's optimistic 'feel-good' attitude he brings to Rocky and other scripts, does not rate highly as a victor candidate. Of the three high scoring planets, Mars/Virgo is the logical candidate for a film actor who specializes in gritty action films which require the military precision and tactics for which Mars/Virgo is known.

Firdaria confirms this by filming of First Blood/Rambo and Rocky III [Moon-Mars] and The Expendables film franchise [Major Mars].

Manners: Venus-Mercury (sign-based); Venus (bound-based).
