Introduction to delineation of appearance and character in natal astrology. The following document is a hand-written analysis of Alexander Stephens, using the principles of medieval predictive astrology. The discipline of natal astrology focuses on the fate of an individual based on a horoscope cast for the moment of birth. Within natal astrology, the 1st house occupying the eastern horizon at birth describes the native: physical vitality, appearance, and character. Between the Hellenistic and Medieval eras several specialized models were developed to assess these characteristics. They include longevity (vitality and length of life), physiognomy (form and shape of the face and body), victor of the chart (overall life purpose), manners (social conduct including ethical behavior), and temperament (elemental mix of fire, earth, air, and water with applications in medical astrology). Prior research has presented models and results for longevity (A Rectification Manual: The American Presidency, Chapter 4) and physiognomy (Astrological Physiognomy: History and Sources & Astrological Physiognomy: Empirical Tests of the Leo Rising Decan).

Victor of the Chart. Included are two competing models for computing the victor of the chart said to be the single most powerful planet in the horoscope. According to Plato's follower Porphyry, by configuration in the natal horoscope the planet signifying the victor of the chart shows the life choice made by the soul prior to incarnation. Plato explains the details of his soul model in The Myth of Er found in the closing pages of his work The Republic. Porphyry and his peer Antiochus offer specific rules for determining the victor of the chart. The method of Antiochus/Porphyry is compared to a later method for determining the victor suggested by the Jewish Rabbi Abraham ben Meir ibn Ezra, a philosopher and astrologer active in the 12th century. For a discussion of these two models, see the companion paper Victor of the Chart: Testing Methods of Antiochus/Porphyry and Ibn Ezra, which serves as a key to what is presented here.

Manners. Plato was not alone among Greek philosophers in conceiving models for the soul. Aristotle's model of vegetative, sensitive, and intellective soul levels (assigned respectively to the plant, animal, and human kingdoms) was taken up by Ptolemy, who found a correspondence between the sensitive and intellective soul and Moon and Mercury in the natal horoscope. Configuration of the Moon and Mercury, with special emphasis given to their rulers, is a second method for analyzing the soul. Ptolemy introduces this model in Tetrabiblos III.13 "Of the Quality of the Soul." Subsequent authors refer to this model as "Signicators of the Soul" or "Manners." A summary template for the Moon and Mercury is presented in the paper and will be further developed in future versions.

Alexander Stephens

Alexander Hamilton Stephens (February 11, 1812 – March 4, 1883)

Alexander Hamilton Stephens was an American politician who served as the vice president of the Confederate States from 1861 to 1865, and later as the 50th governor of Georgia from 1882 until his death in 1883. A member of the Democratic Party, he represented the state of Georgia in the United States House of Representatives before becoming governor.

Stephens attended Franklin College and established a legal practice in his home town of Crawfordville, Georgia. After serving in both houses of the Georgia General Assembly, he won election to Congress, taking his seat in 1843. He became a leading Southern Whig and strongly opposed the Mexican–American War. After the war, Stephens was a prominent supporter of the Compromise of 1850 and helped draft the Georgia Platform, which opposed secession. A proponent of the expansion of slavery into the territories, Stephens also helped pass the Kansas–Nebraska Act. As the Whig Party collapsed in the 1850s, Stephens eventually joined the Democratic Party and worked with President James Buchanan to admit Kansas as a state under the pro-slavery Lecompton Constitution (which was overwhelmingly rejected by voters in a referendum in that state).

Stephens declined to seek re-election in 1858, but continued to publicly advocate against secession. After Georgia and other Southern states seceded and formed the Confederate States of America, Stephens was elected as the Confederate Vice President. Stephens's Cornerstone Speech of March 1861 defended slavery, though after the war he distanced himself from his earlier sentiments. In the course of the war, he became increasingly critical of President Jefferson Davis's policies, especially Confederate conscription and the suspension of habeas corpus. In February 1865, he was one of the commissioners who met with Abraham Lincoln at the abortive Hampton Roads Conference to discuss peace terms.

After the war, Stephens was imprisoned until October 1865. The following year, the Georgia legislature elected Stephens to the United States Senate, but the Senate declined to seat him due to his role in the Civil War. He won election to the House of Representatives in 1873 and held that office until 1882, when he resigned from Congress to become governor of Georgia. Stephens served as governor until his death in March 1883.

Stage I. Determine the Ascendant sign

Firdaria

For a Southern legislator who acceded to Vice Presidency of the Confederacy, one would expect Mars to be a key significator for life affairs; in fact, Mars/Aries will prove the victor. Mars as major and minor Firdaria periods fits key career milestones like a glove for the diurnal series. (See Firdaria listing). Another key factor which shifts the odds towards the diurnal series is passage of the Kansas-Nebraska Act on 22-May-1854 which was a key legislative victory for Stephens. Were the nocturnal Firdaria series correct, this would occur during the South Node period; for the diurnal, during Saturn-Jupiter which is the better delineation with Saturn/Capricorn a significator of constitutional issues and Jupiter/Gemini-rx a significator of quirky legislative maneuvers.

Conclusion: figure is diurnal.

Moon's sign and configuration

Time	Moon's Degree	Sect	Configuration
12:00 AM	29CP20	N	Moon separates form Mercury and is VOC
1:06 AM	00AQ00	N	Moon applies to Mars
6:53 AM	3AQ29	D	Moon applies to Mars
5:36 PM	10AQ01	N	Moon applies to Mars
6:33 PM	10AQ36	N	Moon separates from Mars and applies to the Sun
12:00 AM	13AQ56	N	Moon separates from Mars and applies to the Sun

For a diurnal figure the Moon applies to Mars. The Moon's configuration will not help to refine the Ascendant sign. It is worth noting that for a diurnal figure, Mars is the out-of-sect malefic. Stephens was once challenged to a duel (not held) and on 3-Sep-1848 was involved in a violent assault with Judge Francis Cone who after Stephens struck his cane across Cone's face proceeded to attack Stephens with his knife, repeatedly slashing him and nearly killing him. Assaults are more common for individuals with an out-of-sect malefic. This event provides secondary evidence that the figure is diurnal.

ZRS

For a diurnal figure the possible ASC, L.Spirit, and L.Fortune degree ranges are as follows:

	Ascendant	L.Spirit	L.Fortune
Earliest (sunrise)	21AQ	10PI	3AQ
Latest (sunset)	21LE	4VI	9LE

Stephens is an example of a horoscope where ZRS played a large role in choosing the ASC sign. For the L.Spirit in Aries (see full ZRS table at end of report), L1 Gemini beginning 13-Oct-1834 timed the start of his career to elected political office. During L1 Gemini – L2 Sagittarius which is 10th from L.Fortune, he moves up from the George statehouse to his first national office in the House of Representatives. By the end of L1 Gemini he helped engineer passage of the Kansas-Nebraska Act which he considered the greatest event of his life. Passage of this act signaled the disintegration of the Whig party with pro-slavery advocates gravitating to the Democratic Party and members of the Free-Soil and other groups eventually moving to the Republican Party. Note that L1 Gemini is angular from Fortune which ZRS predicts will be a peak life L1 period.

The subsequent L1 Cancer period is succedent from Fortune angles with Mars/Aries occupying 10th from Cancer. With Mars/Aries proving the victor of the horoscope, this period will harvest legislative and legal maneuvers taken during L1 Gemini to create a militant reputation. L1 Cancer – L2 Sagittarius (10th from Fortune) times Stephens election to the Confederate States of America as Vice President. At L1 Cancer – L2 Capricorn loosing of the bond in 1871 after the Civil War Stephens joins the Republican Party. In addition, his half-brother Linton dies which triggers a lengthy end-of-life spiral marked by depression, drugs, and alcohol.

Physiognomy

If the L.Spirit is in Aries, the corresponding Ascendant degree range is 12PI to 13AR. Stephens body stature is short and ramrod, a delineation match to Aries, which is the rising sign selected in my 1st rectification made in 2012. But Aries can also influence physiognomy by the 3rd decan of Pisces which is Scorpio which is the choice made here.

Configuration of the Chart

Pisces rising is also a better delineation match to Stephens' chronic medical issues, described as 'sickly' for most of his life, as well as drug and alcohol abuse in later years with Venus/Pisces in the 1st ruling the 8th of death. South Node impeding L.Fortune in the 1st is also a configuration which negatively impacts health and is discussed further in the longevity section.

Ascendant decan ruler: Mars/Aries

Planets/Nodes placed in the Ascendant sign or decan: South Node and Venus in Ascendant sign.

Longevity: 71y 0m 20d

Releaser and kadukhudhāh. Figure is diurnal and Sun is preferred as releaser but disqualified for placement in the 12th house. For a preventional figure next choice of release is the Lot of Fortune placed in the 1st angular house co-present with its bound lord Venus/Pisces which is the kadukhudhah. Note the South Node is partile conjunct the Lot of Fortune. I have not found any rules to disqualify the LOF as releaser based on this specific condition; however based on published rules, the South Node will deduct 25% of Venus' 82 major years for a net of 61.5yrs. Jupiter adds 12 minor years by square aspect with reception for a total projection of 73.5yrs which is close to actual longevity of 71yrs.

Following the death of Stephen's half-brother Linton during July-1872 (assuming 1-Jul-1872 Stephens was 60y 4m 13d), Stephen's health deteriorated with Linton's death leaving deep emotional scars. After that time Stephens started to take morphine and alcohol. Note that Linton's death at age 60yrs is a close match to the 61.5yr projection of Venus less the 25% South Node deduction. This shows the relatively low quality of health imparted by the square aspect of Jupiter in detriment and retrograde.

Stephens is described as sickly for most of his adult life. South Node particle conjunct the LOF as releaser is one indication of a diminished life force. Venus/Pisces ruler of the 8th in the 1st is responsible for the toll of drug and alcohol addiction in later years.

Victor of the Chart: Mars/Aries

Porphyry's Stage 1 total score gives high ranks to Mercury, Venus, Mars, and Jupiter with Mars scoring 1 point higher than the rest. Drilling down to the details, Mars does score 3 points by bound which is the highest bound scorer which tips the balance towards Mars as victor. Mars/Aries is in the sign of rulership and does time significant career milestones when either major or minor Firdaria ruler.

Manners: Saturn (sign-based), Mars-Mercury (bound-based).
